Dear Dr. Lederberg:

Back in the early part of this year, when it became public that you had agreed to become President of Rockefeller University, we had an exchange of correspondence. I very much appreciated and valued your letter of February 2nd.

Just the other day I visited with Joe Ernst and was tremendously pleased to find that you have a great interest in the Rockefeller Archival project. I shall have the pleasure of serving with you on the Advisory Council.

This is simply to say that at some point after you are settled in, I shall take the liberty of calling your office with the prospect of arranging a lunch at a time of your convenience. ✓

Sincerely,

RWC:an
